CLASS ODE

Dear old Gould, soon we'll be leaving
Out thy portals with footsteps slow;
Entering then into life's battle
That holds for us either weal or woe.
All too swiftly the years have hastened,
Spent within thy walls so gay;
But no matter where we tarry,
We'll e'er be true to old G. A.

And to teachers loyal hearted,
Full of Wisdom's quaint old lore,
Who with patience never failing
Gave to us from Learning's store.
Helping to smooth out all the tangles
That in school were sure to come;
Watching us with smiling faces,
At our play, when work was done.

Dear old Gould, my eyes are filling,
From my heart there comes a sigh,
As I think that in this Junetime
I must speak the fond goodbye.
But to schoolmates coming after,
I would say with loving thought
That in spite of all Life's duties,
They will never be forgot.

Guard us by thy words and action,
Where beyond the hills is rest,
And the crown of Truth and Honor,
All for each who does his best.
Dear old Gould, may all thy hinges
Never gain one spot of rust,
And thy Gold and Azure banner
Never trail within the dust.
